GEORGES JEAN VIBERT and ZAMACOIS

Born in Paris, 1840. Medals, Salon, 1864, 1867, 1868. Cross of the Legion of Honor, 1870. Medal of the Third Class, Exposition Universelle, 1878. Officer of the Legion of Honor, 1882. Member of the Society of French Artists. Hors Concours.

Vibert first exhibited at the Salon in 1863, and seven years later, at the age of thirty, was decorated with the Cross of the Legion of Honor for his "Roll Call After the Pillage." His good-humored satires on monkish and ecclesiastical life did much toward advancing him in popularity. One of his most celebrated pictures, "The Missionary's Story," may be recalled as having realized the sum of $25,000 at the sale of the Morgan Collection in 1886. Vibert is a passionate devotee of the drama, and is the author of several witty and successful pieces; this side of his character is very clearly revealed in the effective and dramatic composition of his pictures, in which a story is always clearly and sharply told. He is an admirable colorist, and in execution accurate and painstaking.
